

One Hundred Fourth Congress of the United States of America

AT THE SECOND SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Wednesday, the third day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-six

An Act

To confer jurisdiction on the United States Court of Federal Claims with respect to land claims of Pueblo of Isleta Indian Tribe.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. JURISDICTION.

Notwithstanding sections 2401 and 2501 of title 28, United States Code, and section 12 of the Act of August 13, 1946 (60 Stat. 1052), or any other law which would interpose or support a defense of untimeliness, jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the United States Court of Federal Claims to hear, determine, and render judgment on any claim by Pueblo of Isleta Indian Tribe of New Mexico against the United States with respect to any lands or interests therein the State of New Mexico or any adjoining State held by aboriginal title or otherwise which were acquired from the tribe without payment of adequate compensation by the United States. As a matter of adequate compensation, the United States Claims Court may award interest at a rate of five percent per year to accrue from the date on which such lands or interests therein were acquired from the tribe by the United States. Such jurisdiction is conferred only with respect to claims accruing on or before August 13, 1946, and all such claims must be filed within three years after the date of enactment of this Act. Such jurisdiction is conferred notwithstanding any failure of the tribe to exhaust any available administrative remedy.

SEC. 2. CERTAIN DEFENSES NOT APPLICABLE.

Any award made to any Indian tribe other than the Pueblo of Isleta Indian Tribe of New Mexico before, on, or after the date of the enactment of this Act under any judgment of the Indian Claims Commission or any other authority with respect to any lands that are the subject of a claim submitted by the tribe under section 1 shall not be considered a defense, estoppel, or set-off
